ICHR knocks Jammu with research publications

NEWSPOINT BUREAU

Jammu Tawi, October 3

INDIAN Council of Historical Research (ICHR)-an Autonomous Organisation under Ministry of HRD, Government of India, New Delhi has displayed its publication stall which includes the rare books on history, newsletters and research journals for the students and scholars in connection with the 2-day national seminar on Exploring Cultural History of Jammu and Ladakh organised by Centre for History and Culture of Jammu and Ladakh Regions, Jammu University.

The team of ICHR lead by Dr Suresh Kumar, Research Consultant opined that this is for the first time that ICHR has displayed its publications here in Jammu region and it is good opportunity for the researchers and the teaching community to have an access of the new research findings. He also informed that recently ICHR has launched Digital E-resource portal and by becoming its members the one can have the access of ICHR's publication through online. It is to be mentioned here that ICHR is the only organisation which is providing such kind of access and that is too totally free of cost. A very good response has been seen on the publication stall where number hundreds of students and researchers approached for getting access to publications.
